Re: United States v. Alex Barrett, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 14-356 (ENV)

Dear Mr. Keller:

Enclosed please find a proposed plea agreement, which constitutes a plea offer that must be communicated to your client promptly. Missouri v. Frye, 132 S. Ct. 1399, 1408 (2012); see also N.Y. Rules of Prof'l Conduct R. 1.4(a)(1)(iii). This proposed plea agreement contains all the terms of the government's plea offer, and it supersedes any prior plea offers that may have been made. This plea offer expires after August 15, 2014, and may be revoked by the government, in its sole discretion, at any time before its expiration. If your client rejects the plea offer and is convicted after trial, your client's sentencing exposure under the relevant statutes and Sentencing Guidelines is likely to be higher after trial than if the proposed plea agreement were to be entered.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

LORETTA E. LYNCH
United States Attorney
